The 2027 Adria Supertwin 700 SGX is a campervan designed for those who don't want to put limits on where their adventures can take them. Combining the rugged capability of the Mercedes-Benz Sprinter 4x4 with a beautifully designed Adria interior, it offers an exceptional blend of performance, comfort and genuine adventure appeal. At almost seven metres long, the 700 SGX gives you considerably more living and storage space than the compact Supertwin 600 SPB, while retaining the distinctive character and impressive driving capability that makes the Supertwin so special. Powered by a 190bhp Mercedes-Benz diesel engine with 9G-Tronic automatic transmission and permanent 4x4, the Supertwin feels equally at home cruising along the motorway, exploring remote countryside or tackling more challenging conditions. The Mercedes-Benz cockpit also brings MBUX technology, advanced driver assistance and a premium driving environment. Inside, the 700 SGX has a wonderfully sophisticated...
