The Chausson 640 Titanium Premium is a superb example of how clever design can make a compact motorhome feel remarkably spacious, comfortable and versatile. Built for couples and adventurers who want the freedom to travel without compromising on comfort, the 640 combines Chausson's innovative use of space with the sophisticated styling and high specification associated with the Titanium Premium range. Finished to a particularly high standard throughout, this is a motorhome that feels equally at home touring the UK coastline, exploring European cities or settling down for a longer stay at your favourite campsite. Smart design. Exceptional flexibility. One of the major attractions of the Chausson 640 is its intelligent interior layout. Despite its relatively compact dimensions, the living space feels open and exceptionally well considered, with excellent use made of every available centimetre. The lounge provides a comfortable place to relax during the day, while the...
